

Describe your future opportunities with US

PITB

Information Technology Courses

PITB

Business Management Courses

Information Technology

WHO WE ARE

We help you develop your educational skills and build up your bright career in the future. Our professional Business Management courses invite people from all around the world to participate and take courses which we organize. The special qualification and certification degrees are given those who pass our examinations at a required level.

What we offer

We do offers a progressive structure for your career development, from the “fundamentals” level to the “professional” level of learning and assessment.

bite
consulting services

Advantages of joining our education system

We do help for building up your future

1 Our partners and members are able to get discount if they join our education system.

2 Participants and Students are able to have an access into our global projects.

3 Only our members will get opportunities for online courses for free.

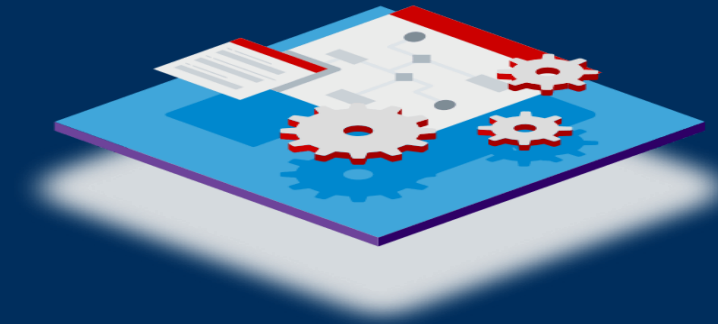

4 Member students are able to have an access to our internship program after course.

5 Members are getting opportunities to use our freelancer portal.

6 Members have access to join our international exhibition and meeting for free.

Type of courses

In the way of grasping what we offer our students

1 PM

It will give you great chances after you understand the projects you manage and analyze.

Our education system has steady relationship with more than 100 international companies in IT industry.

Students can choose to be participant or professional learning process for getting certification and qualification.

2 Analyst

Our team use the real time practice method of Business Analyst.

The students will get benefits after they understand the companies' business structure and strategies.

We will show the real practice during the course and lab education for improving your qualification.

3 Digitalization

We do offer Digital Management to improve your business knowledge.

Our online and in-office team will help for your freelancer projects so that you can feel confidently

Our students able to see global projects and teams with which they work, and get knowledge or experience.

Our qualifications

Grow your skills and gain experience

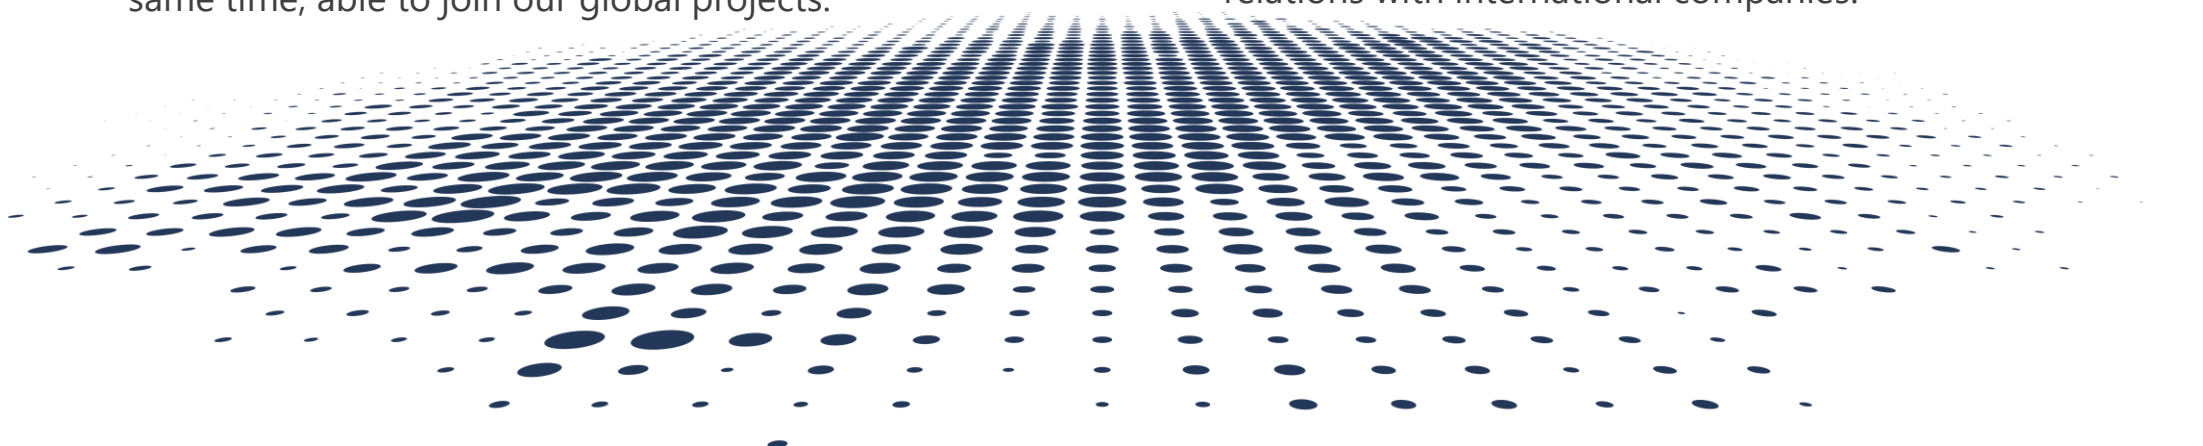

1 Fundamental level: This level is for new members or talents that join our education system. We do offer fundamental level of certification in this step.

2 Junior Level: We kindly require 1-3 years of experience for joining this level. This level gives you to see first step for professional business. At the same time, able to join our global projects.

3 Senior Level: Need to have 3-8 years of experience to be able to join our education system. This level gives you professional certification. Able to join our global projects.

4 Advanced Level: Need to have 10 years of experience. Those participants are welcome to our meetings and exhibitions. Those participants are able to have partnership relations with international companies.

High Level of Qualifications

We offer progressive structure for career development

1 Membership

After getting Advanced Level of qualifications in our education system, all those members able to enter Professional Membership program with experience of different medium size of projects.

Membership level needs to have experience with managing projects. Those members have opportunities to become speakers and share ideas during our global activities.

2 MPBM

Master Professional Business Member status is offered anyone, having had any professional background, even in industry sector with the experience of managing others in project environment.

Full member of MPPM needs to have many years of experience with managing teams for global projects. All of those members are able to enter our global activities.

3 EPBM

Executive Professional Business Member status is offered those, who have the high level of Business Management and Project knowledge and experience, with professional international practice.

Full member of EPBM is given those, who have got more than 18 years of experience in managing large size of global projects. All those members are able to enter our global activities.

Imagine and Describe your future opportunities with US

Contact

academy@bite-cs.com

Young Talents

youngtalent@bite-cs.com